Respondent

TO THE RESPONDENT:

Further to the initial certificate issued in this proceeding, I certify that the additional amount of $ _____ has been paid into court or deposited as security by the applicant. The total amount now paid into court or deposited as security is $ _____, which amount includes the payment into court of $ _____ in offer of settlement.

You are required to release immediately these articles to the applicant.

If you fail to release the articles immediately to the applicant, the applicant may obtain a writ of seizure from the court directing the sheriff or bailiff to seize the articles from you and return them to the applicant and the costs of the seizure will be deducted from the amount paid into court.

If you release the articles to the applicant or if the articles have been seized by the sheriff or bailiff, you are required, within ninety days after the release or seizure of the articles,

- (a) to accept the applicant's offer to settle; or
- (b) to commence an action to recover the amount claimed for the repair, storage or storage and repair of the articles.

If you fail to accept the offer to settle or fail to commence an action to recover the amount claimed within ninety days of the release or seizure of the articles, the amount paid into court or deposited as security with the court will be returned to the applicant.
