A declaration must be filed to form a limited partnership in Ontario under the Limited Partnerships Act (LPA). If a limited partnership formed outside Ontario wishes to carry on business in Ontario, it must also file a declaration under the LPA.

Every declaration, including a declaration filed by an extra-provincial limited partnership, expires five years after the date that it is accepted for filing unless the declaration is cancelled or renewed. A limited partnership is not dissolved if a declaration expires, but an additional fee is payable for subsequent filing of a renewal of a declaration.

A limited partnership must file a declaration of change for every change in information required to be stated in the declaration under subsection 3 (1) or 25 (1) of the LPA.

An Ontario limited partnership must file a declaration of dissolution if the limited partnership is dissolved or if all of the limited partners cease to be limited partners. An extra-provincial limited partnership may cancel the declaration and power of attorney by filing a declaration of withdrawal.

Filings must be made in the required form and format, and meet all requirements and technical specifications established by the Registrar.

A renewal of a declaration of an Ontario or extra-provincial limited partnership must also be signed by all of the general partners. A power of attorney – Form Number 7262 in the prescribed form is required for:

- an extra-provincial limited partnership formed in a jurisdiction outside Canada that carries on business in Ontario; and
- an extra-provincial limited partnership formed in another Canadian jurisdiction that carries on business in Ontario but does not have an office or other place of business in Ontario.

The power of attorney must be executed in the prescribed form appointing a person resident in Ontario or a corporation having its head or registered office in Ontario to be the attorney and representative in Ontario of the extra-provincial limited partnership (subsection 25 (4) of the LPA). The attorney and representative in Ontario is required to keep the executed power of attorney available for inspection at the attorney and representative's address set out in the declaration (subsections 25 (5) and (6) of the LPA).

The filer must confirm the following statements:

NAICS code

The North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) activity code is a 2 to 6 digit number based on the main activity of your corporation or other entity. You must select the code that best describes the main activity of your corporation or other entity. For example, a code for a hair salon could be "812116 – unisex hair stylist shops". The NAICS code is required under the Business Names Act and LPA and appears on the public record in respect of filings made under those Acts.

If you are filing online, you may type the word associated with your main activity and the electronic business registration system will provide a code that you may select to complete that field. To view a complete list of NAICS codes please visit Statistic Canada's website at: <https://www150.statcan.gc.ca/n1/en/catalogue/12-501-X>.

If you are filing in paper, please refer to the list of activities from NAICS (the above link) that best describes your primary activity and then indicate your primary activity code from the link in the form.

Certain Declarations for Change Not Required

In some cases, the Registrar may issue a declaration of change if the change was previously made in accordance with the LPA or another Act and recorded in the Ministry records. In that case, the registrant is not required to file a declaration of change. See section 19 of the LPA for more information.

Changes in Administrative Information

If your official email address has changed, you must notify the Ministry by using the declaration of change filing option, although this is not considered a declaration of change for the purposes of the LPA. Administrative information is collected under the authority of the Business Regulation Reform Act, 1994.
